

Nine FAQs to succeed in perfect Injection Molding

Engineers will inevitably encounter some problems in the process of injection molding. How do you solve the burnt marks and burrs? How does the back pressure affect the product? How to deal with the unstable surplus?

Click and get the solutions for free!

A variety of high-performance plastics and technologies for medical devices are emerging, certain type of plastics can be used to make implantable medical devices, which also drives the medical disposables to meet numerous business opportunities!

7 Types of medical plastics

In addition to medical masks, safety goggles are the most important protection to against pandemic. FCS has been offering its resources to support customers in medical industry around the world, and to accelerate machine delivery and production stability.

Medical device injection molding

YouTube

bili bili

Facebook

Wechat